This Bank will be open to the Public on all business days from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

It advances on real estate to be repaid at long dates.

It pays Mortgage Certificates (Cedulas Hipotecarios) for the amount of the loan it advances, which bear an interest equal to that collected by the Bank.

The value of property offered in mortgage shall not be under two thousand patacons, nor the loan be less than 500 fuertes.

No loan can exceed half the value of the properly mortgaged.

The Mortgagor shall bind himself to pay an annual sum so long as the mortgage lasts, said sum to represent the interest on the sum lent the amortization fund and commission to the Bank. This yearly sum shall be paid quarterly or half-yearly.

Series A—Quarterly.

Mortgage for 20 years 117 days, 8 per cent. interest, 2 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent. commission.

Series B—Quarterly.

Morgage for 27 years 270 days; 8 per cent. interest, 1 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent. commission.

Series C—Half-yearly.

Mortgage for 20 years 190 days; 8 per cent. interest, 2 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent. commission.

Series D—Half-yearly.

Mortgage for 28 years 5 days: 8 per cent interest, 1 per cent. amortization, and 1 per cent commission.

Upon the full payment of the yearly sums stipulated in the Mortgage, both property and Mortgagor shall be freed from all further obligation.

The Mortgagor shall be at liberty to anticipate the payments and to discharge the mortgage, all or in part.

Applications for mortgages must be made in writing, specifying the property offered, accompanied by the title deeds, the receipts of the Contribucion Directa tax, and setting forth that the property is free from all incumbrance, or if not the incumbrance that exists thereon, and which is to be paid off by the mortgage. The Secretary of the bank will supply applicants with the forms necessary as also the tables for amortisation.

Quarterly mortgagers shall pay from 8th to 16th of each January, April, July and October, and half yearly mortgagors shall pay between the 8th and 15th of each January and July.

With the amortization fund, mortgage certificates (cedulas) shall be redeemed at par by quarterly and half yearly drawings.

The mortgage Bank pays the interest on the quarterly cedulas or mortgage certificates between the 31st December and 6th January, the 31st March and 6th April, the 30th June and 6th July, the 30th September and 6th October every year, and on the half yearly cedulas from the 31st December to 6th January, and from 30th June to 6th July.

The Mortgage Bank can act between the capitalist and mortgagor, free of charge in the way of realizing the cedulas, and for this purpose will receive deposits without interest, which will receive a preference, and which sums will be deposited in the Provincial Bank.

On and after the 15th February 1872 the Mortgage Bank will be open to the public.

Jose M. La Fuente,
Secretary.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

LIFE'S VALUE DOUBLED—With a disordered stomach, physical and mental enjoyment are alike impossible. Every other organ sympathises with the great feeder of the system, and the mind becomes gloomy, irritable, and enfeebled. No change for the better is possible until the interrupted functions of digestion have been restored and regulated, and Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, acting directly upon the stomach, the bowels, and the liver, arrest their morbid action and reinfuse life to them the vigor of which disease has deprived them. Purgation and invigoration go on simultaneously, the appetite improves, the spirits brighten, and life, which is literally a burden to the dyspeptic, becomes once more enjoyable. The sugar-coating prevents the possibility of contact between the palate and the substance of the pills, and makes them agreeable to take. cj—jel1

THE WESTERN RAILWAY.

The blue-books of Buenos Ayres are so voluminous that to review one of them involves almost as much labor as to read up Hume's England It is a penalty that falls rather on the journalists than the legislators; no one can suppose that the Senators or Deputies read these reports. The volume before us, by Don Palemon Huergo, gives the traffic of the above railway for the year 1872, from which we take the following data.

The gross receipts for the year were $29,036,044, the working expenses absorbing over 66 per cent., and leaving as the net profits a sum of $9,849,207, equal to a dividend of 6¾ per cent. on the capital employed. At first sight this is rather discouraging, since the profits are steadily diminishing and the working expenses increasing, every year. In 1871 the working expenses were under 64 per cent., and the net profits shewed as 7 per cent. on the capital. The present falling off is not due to any decline of traffic on the main line to Chivilcoy, but to the unremunerative character of the branch to Lobos:

Expenses on Lobos branch	$2,383,371
Receipts on Lobos branch..	1,993,597
dead loss	389, 74

Add to the above a similar loss of $309,049 on the branch to the Chacarita cemetery, in which the working expenses are three times as much as the receipts; this branch is never likely to be anything but a dead loss, the passengers being of that description who need no return tickets.

Let us take the figures on the main line to Chivilcoy, say 100 miles, and see how much more favorable the statistics of the Western Railway then appear.

The gross earnings of the main line and the working expenses have been for the last the last two years as follows—

	1871	1872
Receipts.....	$25,823,965	127,042,447
Expenses	15,702,545	16,803,465
Net proceeds....	10,121,420	10,238,982

Here we see that, notwithstanding the reduced rates of traffic and the competition of the tramway to Flores, the railway produced 4 per cent. more than in 1871 in its gross receipts; and the net profits as compared with the cost of the line (12¼ millions currency or about one million sterling) shew a dividend of 8¼ per cent, against 8¼ the previous year. This is a splendid result by the side of even the most paying railways in England. The earnings per kilometer in 1872 were $169,068, an increase of 14 per cent on previous years; this is equal to £2,220 per mile, which gives an idea of the magnitude of the business done.

Returning to the total returns of the line and branches we find a decline of 210,000 passengers as compared with 1871, which is easily accounted for by the fact that during the plague of that year there were fully a quarter of a million extra passengers over and above the ordinary traffic. The figures are—

	1871	1872
Passengers	1,105,005	894,550
Tons cargo.....	14 ,845	16,,147

Here we see an increase of 12 per cent over 1871 in the goods traffic.

Probably in no other country in the world do first-class passengers form so large a proportion as here: in 1871 they were as 4§ per cent, and in 1872 as 38 per cent. of the entire number of passengers.

We have not time to go into details about new stations and workshops, but may glance at the capital account, which stands thus—

Main line to Chivi coy..	124,411,365
Branch to Lobos	25,100, 09
Minor accounts	26,913,909
Materials in deposit	10,490,355
Value of land	28,128,000
	$215,043,629

This shews that the Western Railway represents a total value of about £1,720,000 sterling.

Mr. Ringuelet, the engineer, compares the cost of railways in this and other countries as follows, per kilometre—

Germany	$1,340,137 m/c
France	2,106,000
England.....	3,170,383
Scotland.....	1,886,137
Ireland	1,081,618
N. American.....	536,259
Lobos branch ...	321,000
Line to Chivilcoy	740,000

We have got so deep into the Report that we lay it aside fairly exhausted, but convinced that the Western Railway is one of the finest railways in the Continent, and that Mr. Huergo is the right man in the right place.

THE AMERICAN MAILS

New York, April 25th.

Search for the Modocs is still pursued. There is now reason to fear that those who have escaped will bring other tribes to their aid in opposing the troops and Warm Spring Indians.

Reports from Arkansas City give details of a massacre of a party of four and the robbing of others by the Indians at Medicine Lodge Creek.

A statue of Sir Walter Scott is to be placed in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia.

Mr. Paul Morphy has been invited to exhibit his proficiency in chess at the Vienna Exhibition.

Messrs. Longfellow and Bryant have been elected honorary members of the Academy of St. Petersburg.

The weather in Nebraska has been frightfully severe. Men have been frozen to death between their residences and barns, while trying to reach the latter to feed their stock.

The Juarists and Porfirists in Mexico propose, as a means of maintaining organized resistance, to unite in the nomination of Palacios for President of the Congress.

Mexicans on the Rio Grade are murdering, robbing, and, occasionally, roasting Americans.

There is confusion throughout Mexico, occasioned by wars and preparations for war in Sonora, Sinaloa, Oaxaca, and Chihuahua.

St. Louis, April 24.—The Democrat says that reports are in circulation there that a train with Government supplies for Fort Griffin, from Denison on the 13th inst., and consisting of eight four-mule wagons, was captured by Indians on Cole Creek, sixty-five miles from Denison. Four of the eight men who were with the train are said to have been killed and two wounded.

San Francisco, April 24.—Thirteen hundred head of cattle have been stolen by Indians from William Wells, Yakima Valley, Or.

Three families who have arrived at Dalles from Klickital, report that the Indians there are so insolent that they did not think it safe to remain.

General Jefferson C. Davis leaves here for the seat of the Modoc war tomorrow. General Hardie, from the Inspector-General's Department, accompanies him.

Virginia City, Nev., April 24.—The Indians of this State as far east as Utah are well posted on the Modoc war. A despatch from Winnemacca says a large detachment of troops have arrived there enroute from Camp Halleck for Camp McDermit. Fears are entertained among the people there of an outbreak among the Pintes.

A freight train on the Central Pacific Railroad ran over some cattle this afternoon east of Elko. Seven cars were thrown into a ditch. George Russell, a fireman, was fatally injured. The easternbound passenger train will be detained at Elko ten or twelve hours.

PARIS LETTER.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

May 8.

There only remains one more fault to commit on the part of the government—to irritate the country and to exasperate all classes of republicans, and that has been duly done, namely, the publication in the inspired organ of the Presidency of the series of organic laws the present Assembly ought to pass before dissolution be even thought of. The amount of work thus struck out for the deputies could employ them for years, perhaps for ever—with interludes of personalities and a periodical crisis. If sincere, such intentions on the part of M. Thiers are lamentable; if intended as straws to ascertain how the wind blows, the course is reprehensible, as it begets suspicion, shakes confidence, and inflames passions already over-excited. It is wisdom to wait till the Assembly meets, not to open fire before having entered in campaign. Since the Paris election especially, both monarchists and republicans have burned their ships, and either party must disappear in the coming struggle. M. Thiers is not now considered to be the man capable of saying to the advancing waves and wind—"Peace, and be still." The Radicals have no objection to coalesce with the moderate republicans provided the joint programme fixes October as the epoch for the dissolution of the Assembly, and insists on office being held by at least professing democrats and not by prominent Imperialists and Royalists.

To reform the electoral law—in the sense of mutilating manhood suffrage—will undoubtedly provoke a revolution. Universal suffrage was not condemned when it elected the present Chamber to terminate the war, but when every supplemental election indicates how much the nation desires the ratification and the honest direction of the Republican form of Government, universal suffrage is condemned and tabooed. It is the instinct of the nation that controls, that selects new tools for new work; the 'modus operandi' of the vote is the same. The nation is inclined to even speak louder. Barodet was a 'spectre rouge;' he is now held to be a mild-mannered sort of a man. Lyons will send Rane to the Assembly; so the Monarchists will have to come to some definite decision. The time for temporizing is past; France wants to be led by actions, not phrases.

The most amusing spectacle is the coolness with which publicists propound their 'infallible' remedies for the complications of the time. All other doctors are but quacks. This is not so bad as the indifference they extend to their former opinions when Philip is inconveniently quoted against Philip. Emile de Girardin is the greatest sinner in this respect; he blows one time hot, another time cold; it can be truly said of him. "Vous marchez d' un tel pas, qu' on a peine à vous suivre.' The most cruel affront you could give to a Frenchman is to deny his claim to be a logician; well, there are logicians and logicians; the want of that twelve inch rule would strike at Monsieur's Mathematical Capacity by which he fashions states and peoples in accordance with algebraic formula. M. de Girardin was an Orleanist, then a Republican, afterwards a platonic Imperialist and now something like a Red Republican. He belongs to that "advanced party," which is behind in everything. He advocated the selfish war of 1870 against Prussia, to aid Providence in restoring to France her "natural" boundaries, that is, as "won" by war under the First Republic, and when the poor country was bleeding at every pore, and civil war threatening to give it a "coup de grace," his perfect cure was to convert France into a "Federal Republic," which is opposed to the instinct as well as the interests of the people. And yet M. de Girardin is one of the foremost men of the day—at home.

Events have given to fashion the Barodet hat—a chimney pot, terminating in a point, and recalling the period of 1790. Adieu to the simplicity of republican manners; the ukase has gone forth that prefects and the whole tribe of kindred officials, of high and low degree, must henceforth appear in professional costume, as the natives have ceased to be astonished; since the fall of the Empire swords, lace, plush and feathers, have been put along with the old busts of Louis Philippe and Napoleon III; and remain covered with dust and a "de profundis." As wisdom resides in the lawyer's wig, respect for functionaries will return before gold lace. It is requisite to speak to the eyes at all seasons; under the mother Republic citizens believed they were Spartans or Romans, by females wearing the peplum, and men the pallium; in 1848 the young mountain party took to wearing Robespierre vests. Prestige was the thing, when Marie Antoinette one morning desired to put aside for a few moments those immense 'paniers' that were then in vogue, some akin to crinolines, she was accused of positive indecency.

Paris is now immersed in the enjoyment of the annual exhibition of paintings. It is a beautiful trait in the French character, the relish felt in these displays of highly cultivated taste. Crowds do not go to look, but to study. Each visitor or group of visitors has a catalogue marked, following the criticisms of the most talented writers in the press. The morning is the best time to visit the 'salons.' The very high reputation which the French school of painting enjoys gives importance as well as attraction to these annual competitions. Then it is interesting to note the progress of such an artist, while regretting the decline of others; it is curious to observe forgotten worthies returning once more to artistic life, and there is the expectation of perhaps witnessing some youth to fortune and to fame unknown becoming 'per saltum' rich and great. This last pleasure is very rare, and is conspicuous by its absence this year. In a word, the Academy's collection of statuary, as well as of painting, is this season for general rather than individual excellence. The pictures deemed by the jury as below the standard for admission will be exhibited apart by the disappointed artists themselves, who have succeeded in renting the hall destined for a dog-show.

It appears that a 'stringent regulation' exists, prohibiting the letter-carriers from reading the postal cards, which they are to respect as closed letters. This delicacy of precaution is ably seconded by the postmen themselves—nearly all 'ex-militaires,' without the ghost of curiosity in their character. The cards have proved such a treat to some 'concierges,' that they are now able to dispense with their accustomed 'petit' journal, thus saving one sous.

The Bonapartist organs are very wrath at the Municipality for building school-houses, instead of making new streets, and perhaps barracks.

The open air concerts have commenced; for the moment their great attraction is to view the 'absence' of the public, and to regard artistes performing muffled like a Russian, or protected by an umbrella. Pitying our meteorological sorrows, the National Opera has very opportunely brought out the new ballet of 'Gretna-Green.' It has the merit of being amusing and comprehensible, which are rare excellencies since 1830, when the 'historical' deposed the mythological ballet. Gretna-Green is the story of the engineer being hoist with his own petard. The Blacksmith has a handsome daughter, named "Pretty," who is beloved by a laddie called "William," having like Berkley all the virtues under heaven, but not a farthing in his purse. Papa declines to professionally aid in annihilating time and space to make these two lovers happy; but a neighboring laird desires to catch an heiress, and instructs the blacksmith to be ready at a moment's notice. The couple arrive, and are married; but throwing off their disguises, William and Mary stand before him as man and wife. Papa, aware that what cannot be cured must be endured, pardons the young folks, knowing from experience that Love laughs at locksmiths and blacksmiths. The decorations and scenery in general are very splendid, and the 'roles' are well interpreted; Pretty is a true 'fille d'air,' and the mobility and harmony of her gestures quite supply the place of language. William cut all sorts of figures in mid-air, but then remember his happiness!

THE WESTERN RAILWAY

(Communicated.)

With the knowledge of all that Mr. Palemon Huergo has done for this railway, his vast studies and sweeping economical reforms, still fresh on our minds, we were disappointed on taking up last year's report to find it more a dry recapitulation of the bye-laws than what it actually purports to be—a record of the year's labors.

Of what use to effect a saving of £30,000 per annum, it the owners, be they merchants, or Governors, are not made aware of it? All the more necessary in the latter case when the proprietors may be said to be amateur traders. Besides, the public cannot be supposed to feel gratetul to a gentleman for gratuitously giving himself to studying their comfort and convenience, if through mock modesty they are kept in the dark as to the nature and extent of their obligation.

Were Don Palemon an Irishman (as we could desire) the excuse might be found in native bashfulness; as an Argentine, Mr. Huergo leaves himself open to the charge of being a bad bookmaker, however able a Railway director he may make.

The little work—150 pages octavo including index and errata sheet—is not entirely devoid of interest. Nay for those residing along the line we venture to pronounce it positively useful if not absolutely necessary.

There are even a few items to interest the general reader.

The board of Directors as constituted by law 2nd October 1871 consists of ten members.

President, Don Palemon Huergo.

Secretary, Don Miguel Cañe.

Both gentlemen have the advantages of European experience, more especially the former who during his three years of office has introduced grand economical reforms.

The line is consequently to-day the best and most paying in the country. An honor as well as a profit to the nation.

Would that the same could be said of all enterprises undertaken by Government. Unfortunately, as a rule, the very contrary is the case. Witness the water works, port cleaning &c., one and all failures from mismanagement. The fact is we want a Huergo in every office from the Municipality down, one who would give himself, heart and soul, to the service for the mere empty honor. Such men are rarely to be met with in this material age, and however willing Government may be to reward Mr. Huergo with a higher post, to which the chair in the Plaza Parque has proved a stepping stone, still in the interest of the public, at least that important section of it which travels by the Western Railway, we would recommend that he be left where he is. Only throw aside that mock modesty, the worst of ills to which flesh is heir. In your next report Mr. Huergo treat us to some of your new ideas or midnight studies on branch lines and the equalizing of passenger and goods traffic instead of the worn out rules.—"No smoking allowed in the saloon carriages. Every passenger must be provided with a ticket &c. &c.", and in return we promise you a liberal reward for your services together with the respectful admiration of a descriminating public.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

"Bankers and Ministers of Finance defend us!" Awful news! There seems to be a general financial burst up all over the civilised world. The Pacific steamer Puna came in yesterday, and our irrepressible correspondent at the Mount, Mr. Stand-by O'Gorman, flashed us the news before her anchor touched bottom. It was worth a month's subscription to be on the Bolsa when we posted up our telegram. A howl came from the uttermost depths of the bosoms of the three Bs. An earthquake-like shock made strong bankers reel, delicate brokers blubber, and rubicund barraqueros say their prayers; while the general ruck of merchants, almaceneros, traders &c. turned as pale as boiled chickens. No wonder, "parbleu!" Such news was never before received on the Bolsa. First and foremost the Bank of England rate of Discount has been raised to 6 per cent., and will, of course, be higher; then over TWO HUNDRED mercantile houses in Vienna have gone to irretrievable smash; next the Bank of Austria has set up a permanent issue of notes to meet the crisis. Nobody knew what the deuce to think of Vienna coming out in this way at the very moment of her Exhibition being in full swing, and all the Princes in Europe her guests; but poor Austria has always been unfortunate in Peace, War, and Love, and will be, apparently, to the extreme end of the chapter. The shock will be felt all over Europe, and what's worse, is only the opening burst of the storm. London, Berlin, and possibly Paris, will in all probability be reported in financial agony by next steamer. The other news in our telegram paled before this astounding commercial disaster, and nobody cared a fig about Khiva being taken, the Japanese Embassy, or the serious proportions the revolt in Louisiana is assuming.

The French mail steamer Niger sailed yesterday afternoon for Brazil and Bordeaux with some passengers and a light mail, the s.s. Olbers having "taken the coal off her pipe" somewhat in the latter way. We did not go down to the Mole to see the passengers off, the day being so beastly cold that we were afraid of the effect any tearful emotion might have on our appetite for dinner—besides there was no particular subscriber going that we were anxious to assist in "enveloping" on his way to embark. Safe home Niger, with all on board!

The Weather excelled itself in the way of bitter wind and biting frost on Monday night. Our thermometer is indisposed, but the severity of the cold may be imagined when we state that our printing ink was frozen yesterday morning, and we had a good deal to do to get it into working order again. In the camp, we hear, the cold at morn and night is something stupendous, and a large number of lambs have prematurely departed this life in consequence.

A kind Scotch friend presented us yesterday with a file of old papers (La Federacion) printed in this city in the year 1844. They are open to the inspection of our subscribers or any persons intending to become such before they die. We return our warmest thanks to our Caledonian admirer.

A few lines we have from a friend now in Vienna say—

"The Emperor and the Municipality of Vienna are doing their best to make this city inhabitable during Exhibition season by securing accommodation in the way of food and lodging. Special contracts have been made with railway companies to secure the punctual arrival of food trains; hotels are being run up like Jonali's gourd, and this facility joined to the determination of citizens to go earlier to the country and remain there later, so as to set their town houses will aid in removing one draw-back feared by visitors. A furnished room with bed is as yet to be had for two florins per day. The two semi-chronic maladies of Vienna, cholera and small pox, have been conspicuous by their absence of late."

Calle San Martin (we christened it Bond-street once, but some fractious subscribers did n't like the name, and we dropped it like a hot potatoe) was in an effervescing state all day yesterday in consequence of the telegraph wires being laid down from the Provincial Bank to the Policia. Mr. Commissioner Furze was the man of the day, the observed of all observers; he directed the operations, ably seconded by Vice-Commissioners Leslie and Calderwood. The idle public, and even those with a little to do, seemed to take a great interest in the proceedings, the more so as it was difficult for anyone to proceed about their business, as the side walk was bottom upwards, the tramways stopped, carts prohibited from coming within a mile of the works en, and foot passengers made to 'keep off' by the 'polis.' The 'oi polloi' were about in great force, and kept peeping into the tubes as it they expected to find some stray sovereigns or condors in them. This short cable was brought out by Mr. Oldham, manager of the R. Plate Telegraph Company, and has three wires—quite sufficient for thief-catching purposes.

We hear with great pleasure that our old friend M. Palliére, an artist well known in this city, obtained one of the first prizes last year at the Paris Exhibition of Arts, for one of his pictures. M. Palliére was correspondent for the STANDARD in Paris during the last Exhibition in the Queen of Cities, and we are truly glad to find that his great talents (and a little Standard luck, perhaps) have obtained for him so enviable a distinction.

"The literature of epigrams and epitaphs comprises some of the smartest 'jeux d'esprit' written by men against women, and by wives against their masters. The German poet Besser produced this epigram on Adam's sleep—

He laid him down and slept; and from his side
A woman in her magic beauty rose;
Dazzled and charmed, he called t at woman 'bride.'
And his first sleep became his last repose."

This matches 'Heather,' and if our inspired friends and subscribers, Mr. Pippet and Mr. Rogers, can beat it, we'll give them the STANDARD free, say for three days.

The most interesting Blue Book recently published in Paris is that in reference to the doings of the Government of National Defence during the siege of that city by the Germans. Like all French official documents it is drawn up in a masterly manner, and reads like a novel. Amongst the 1000 exciting incidents recorded of the period we find a sardonic proposal by Mr. Bismarck that all the editors in Paris should be handed over to him as hostages during the armistice that preceded the capitulation. The splendidly patriotic offer of Baron Rothschild to give all his fortune to re-victual Paris proves that though Gold may condemn a man 'never to laugh,' it cannot crush love of country out of him. The book is voluminous, but well worth perusal from cover to cover.

We have a highly interesting bit of gossip from Hamburg. At the last of the public examinations held annually in that city, a boy born in B. Ayres—Master Oellrich—made a clean sweep of every prize offered, first in everything, 'right off,' from the Alphabet to Rhetoric and Philosophy. The consequences of this stunning triumph for the talented young gentleman will be that he will only have to serve one year in the army instead of three, will be supported by the Government and advanced in rank with all possible rapidity. Perhaps we are recording the first triumphs of a future Moltke.

At a young ladies institute in America the pupils are put through a 'domestic course,' somewhat in this style:—'Would you prefer an iron or an earthen pot on your kitchen stove?' 'How would you expend two dollars if you had a sick husband and six children too young to work?' 'How would you make bread?' One of the classes last week unanimously answered—'With flour and yeast.'

Our occasional correspondent at Chacabuco sent us a line yesterday to say he does not receive his STANDARD a bit too regularly. (Thanks to railway and diligence mismanagement, this is a too frequent complaint with subscribers to every paper in town.) The Rev. Father L. Leahy has been on a mission to Chacabuco lately, and was very warmly received by the neighbours thereabout. A funny triangular duel between an old man, a young man, and a middle aged mastiff, is reported by our correspondent. It appears that the two former, instead of going to the church to hear Father Leahy preach, went to the 'pulperia' to have a guzzle. In a short time the young man was 'as drunk as a Lord,' and the old man 'balmy.' Feeling rather dull, the pair got up a row, and the younger was soon on the floor. The old boy was in the act of raising his foot to give his prostrate antagonist a vigorous 'toe,' when the 'pulpero's' mastiff, enraged at seeing a man kicked while he was down, rushed at the old fellow, and seizing him by that part of the person which it is equally rude to show to friend or foe, fastened his teeth in it and carried off enough to do him for lunch. The old gentleman, whenever he visits since, has been unable to accept the pressing invitation of his hosts to 'take a seat,' and always says he prefers standing, which he is likely to do for a considerable time to come; and 'serve him right' for kicking a fallen foe.

We had mails from the West Coast and that peaceable spot, Central America, yesterday, but were so completely knocked "off our feet" by the asphyxiating news from Europe that we had not the heart to open the papers lest we might read of a fire, an earthquake, a railway accident, the failure of a tuppenny newspaper, or some other awful calamity. If we feel better to-morrow we'll read the papers received, and publish the news. These are truly shocking times.

We'll have to start a Private Enquiry office in the Court; that's a fact. Applications for missing persons are continually pouring in on us from home, as if there were no active Chargé or popular Consul to look after distressed and missing Britishers. We'll write to the Times and Lord Granville; we will by Jupiter, if agonized relatives dont let us alone. The latest man wanted is Mr. G. F. Heauley, of Peterborough, England. His relatives at home are "au desespoir" about him. One of them, his sister, writes to us to look out for him. Anyone giving such information as may lead to his turning up will be adequately remunerated — as far as "gracias!" goes, and that's a long way sometimes.

"A French paper gives a detailed account of the manufacture of false eyes in Paris, from which the curious fact appears that the average sale per week of eyes intended for the human head amounts to four hundred. One of the leading dealers in this article carries on the business in a saloon of great magnificence. His servant has but one eye, and the effect of any of the eyes wanted by customers is conveniently tried in his servant's head, so that the customer can judge very readily of the appearance it will produce in his own head. The charge is about £2 per eye. For the poor there are second-hand visual organs, which have been worn for a time and exchanged for new ones; they are sold at reduced prices, and quantities are sent off to India and the Sandwich Islands. But this manufacture has been successfully introduced into England, and forms one of the curiosities of Birmingham industry."

To-morrow will be a holiday.

There was the father and mother of a ruction at the Municipality on Monday night about that hour when all decent citizens were going to bed. Bedlam was nothing to it, and it is quite clear that the gods love the Corporation. The debate was all about the crisis in the municipal purse, and was enlivened by the public present hooting, hissing and yelling till the Police were called in and the hall cleared. The Lord Mayor Aldermen and Councillors went home to bed without deciding anything but when to meet again.

A man in America lately advertised, 'One basement to let in dis house in der third shtory.'

What is the difference between bayonets and bullets? Bayonets are driven but bullets are lead.

The prevailing impression in town yesterday about Lopez Jordan having thrown up the sponge is that it is all 'flam.' The report of Uruguay being taken is doubted by some and believed by others. There was some news at the War Office, but nobody could ascertain what it was.

The plans for the new Post office are ready, and the estimated cost is 120.000 pats., with talk of reducing it. Just so! The thing will be botched on the strictest economical principles. What sort of a shanty could be built for £24,000?

General Vedia has taken command of the Correntino troops operating against Lopez Jordan. He made a stunning stump speech when embarking at Corrientes, and was loudly cheered.

Troubles never come singly. We have the Presidential Election, the Entre Rios scrimmage, the monetary and high-heeled boot crisis, and yesterday undoubted intelligence arrived that Calfucura is preparing a thundering invasion on the most promiscuous scale. Well, patience, perseverance, pluck, prayer and "pesos" may get us out of the immortal mess, but it 'll take them all to do it.

The Porteña entered port yesterday morning from the Mount. She had an awful passage up; blowing like anything, cold as ice or charity, damp as the spirits of Cedula holders, and, take it for all in all, a monstrously disagreeable run across. She touched bottom twice in the Roads, and it was noon before the passengers saw the Hole in the Mole.

A London "chum" writes to one of ours:—"An effort is to be made to reform the very bad practice of arriving late at balls. Unpunctuality is considered to be 'aristocratic, the 'mode'. It is between midnight and one o'clock in the morning that ball rooms become occupied, and even then but for a short time, as the guests have to put in an appearance at several such gatherings during a night. There is no time for a 'causerie' or a waltz. Balls in London are simply degenerating into receptions."

The National Government has chartered three steamers to cruise in the rivers, and nab any Jordanites they can. They are the Comercio del Rosario, Estrella de Gualeguay, and Curuza.

Another suicide! this time by a child of 15 years of age. The boy was as merry as he ought to be at his age, and was enjoying himself at a party in his father's house, Calle Montevideo, when he suddenly withdrew, and half an hour afterwards was found shot through the head in an out office, with a discharged pistol in his hand. It is to the last degree shocking to read of an event of this kind. How are our youth being trained?

Yesterday and the day before the beach was alive with troops embarking for Entre Rios. It reminded us of Kingtown and the Cove of Cork during the Crimean War. Every day now troops arrive in town and are hurried to the front.

The 21st inst. will be the 27th anniversary of the ascension of the Papal Throne by His Holiness Pope Pius the Ninth. The venerated Archbishop-elect, Dr. Aneiros, intends to celebrate the day with befitting pomp, and has applied to the Municipality to allow all the children at the public schools to attend the religious ceremonies in honour of the anniversary.

There was an awfully rich scene on the Mole yesterday about four o'clock. A distinguished STANDARD reader went down to embark for the Porteña. He was 'enveloped in warm friends,' and a much warmer top-coat, and on reaching the 'Hole,' hailed a boatman. There was no water at the stairs, and our hero (the boatman) asked our reader $300 m/c. to put him on the Porteña's deck, explaining that the price was high, as a cart should be employed for half the trip. Our reader was nearly suffocated with indignation, but recovered sufficiently, after a slap between the shoulders from one of his 'envelopers,' to ask the ruffian his name, and tell him he'd write to every paper in town about him. The ruffian replied that his name was Francisco, and laughed awfully, which made our reader apopletic again. Another Ligurian said he would take him off for $150 m/c. 'as a great compliment.' Our reader could not stand this, and bolted back to his hotel. The Porteña did not sail, as none of her passengers could get on board.

Late on Monday evening the news of the disbanding of Lopez Jordan's rebel army reached town. The bulletin of our active colleague the Mercantil gives the plain unvarnished truth.—"By letters from Gualeguay we are informed on the best authority that Jordan is resolved to disband the few forces at his command. Those in the district of Gualeguay had already received their unlimited furlough. Accordingly Colonel Tejera (feigning sickness), Colonel Juan Luis Gonzalez, chief of artillery; Commander Agustin Villa Nueva, and ensigns Vicente Moran, Angel Gonzalez, Segundino Salinas and several others had surrendered to the National commander. Thus the rebellion may be said to be over, if it ever really existed; for that it never took root in the province is shown by the disappearance of anything like ill-will at the National intervention. In a few days more there will not be found a man to uphold the banner of revolt. Lopez Jordan is said to be at San Antonio with the small remnants of his forces. It is reported that he is about to make a virtue of necessity and disband the rest. The withdrawal of so many of his chief officers is proof of what we say, and it now only requires a united effort on the part of the people of Entre Rios and the National troops to give a 'coup de grace' to the criminal and uncalled-for 'pronunciamiento' of the 1st May."

Turning the Tables.—An American contemporary tells a good story of the recent election in the United States. A planter assembled all his hands in the spring, and told them they must vote for the Democrats, or he would not employ them. The darkeys waited until the cotton was whitening, and then called on him, and told him he must give his word to vote for the Radicals or they would leave in a body. And he did it.

ON 'CHANGE.

June 10, 1873.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
National Bonds	77¾
Cedulas	88

The news from Europe to-day shook this market to its centre. Cedulas fell off to 87½, being the lowest figure they ever touched since the creation of the stock; but there was an immediate reaction, and Cedulas closed at 88¼. The Provincial Minister of Hacienda had a long interview to-day with the board of directors of the Provincial Bank, at the Bank. What the result of the interview was none on 'Change knew, but, it is possible, to take the views of the Bank on the present bill before the House. Spite of the very disastrous news from Europe, Bonds gave way in nothing, and positively ruled stiffer to-day than yesterday.

The sales were—

Exchange ruled nominal. Some bills were passed at 49½ commercial paper, but the banks have all stopped drawing and put down the rates. It was said that the Nova will take gold this time.

The Nova's passengers came ashore to-day and liberated from quarantine.

Mr. Crawford, the representative of Messrs. Waring Bros., of London, was welcomed on 'Change to-day on his return from Montevideo. Mr. M. Forrester was also welcomed up from the Mount.

The Porteña ran aground this morning on entering port, and the passengers did not land before one o'clock. Not for some time have we seen the river so low as at present. The Rev. Mr Vaughan, who was about to leave for Montevideo, could not get away: the cartmen asked more than the passage down to the Mount.

Messrs. Lamport and Holt's new Rosario steamer Zena entered Montevideo to-day. She brings dates to 10th.

The new steamer Maraldi is expected to-morrow in Montevideo. Messrs. Green & LeRossignol will load her for Antwerp.

The fall in salted hides is very sharp: 8½ in Liverpool, and 91 francs in Antwerp. Tallow same.

Mr. Dennehy of 130 Calle San Martin has sold the following lots situate close to the Brown station of the Boca and Ensenada Railway—

Ant. Ferretto	10x20 varas for 9,000 m/c.
„	20x20 varas corner for 18,000 $
Ignacio Nunes	10x40	„	18,000
H. Gomes	10x39	„	24,000
Pietro Gavini	10x31	„	15,000
T. Piatelli	10x52	„	19,500

All the above are payable in 15 monthly instalment, some four squares have been divided into lots and the above are the first sales effected.

The latest from Antwerp is to 18th, and give superior R. P. wools recovered 5 to 10 centimes.

The Puno's news fell likes bombshell in the Bolsa; the first telegram up with the news came to the STANDARD, and when we placed the message on the Bolsa there was nothing short of excitement. Such tremendous financial news has not for years been received, and although the failures are limited to Austria, still it is feared that the effects may be felt in other markets. As everything at the moment connected with Austrian finance and commerce is of moment, we give the following from the Stateman's Year Book:—The total commerce of Austria amounts to £81,600,000 stg. The imports averaged £29,400,000 stg., the exports £40,700,000. The great trade with Austria is cotton, and the national debt is over £400,000,000 stg. The war with Prussia cost Austria £3,000,000 stg.

During the afternoon every one asked for more telegrams, and later on the Club and Bolsa messages came up. It was said on 'Change that some parties anticipated bad news by the Pauno, and so anxious were they about it that one or two left last night for Montevideo, so as to have the news first. After the first explosion of excitement caused by the news, people looked at the matter with greater calmness, and pointed to the conduct of the Austrian Government in emitting £7,000,000 stg. to help the Vienna market, whilst here, in Buenos Ayres, many parties think that the present money crisis would have entirely passed ere this had the government adopted a similar measure.

At the meeting of the National Bank Directors held to-day two candidates were proposed to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Alcorta's retirement—Messrs. Guerrico and Bernal; the latter was elected.

A private letter from New York received per mail says:—The wool market continued in an exceedingly depressed condition until within a week past. Just now there is a slight revival in business, but purchasers operate sparingly, notwithstanding the fact that rates for all kinds are greatly reduced. Best Buenos Ayres, 30-32; ordinary, 25-28.

We publish to-day a 'precis' of the Western Railway report just sent in to Government. It will be found a useful paper, and the figures are official. First-class passengers, 1871, 45 per cent.; do. in 1872, 38 per cent. The goods traffic shows an increase of 12 per cent on the previous year.

The news from Entre Rios was of a confused character, and the bulletins issued by the papers did not amount to much. Meanwhile the shipment of troops this morning was the event of the day; 154 soldiers, the 3rd of the Line. They go we believe, to Concepcion del Uruguay. "Porteños" have again come into request, owing to the calling out of the National Guards by the Governor, and some of our principal Bolsa brokers have been mobilised. The Entre Riano war, due to this or that news, or the calling out of the troops, is attracting more attention than before, and people are anxious to see the way out of the muddle.

The circulars by the packet are to the 7th of May from Antwerp, and they give the stock on that day at 32,256 bales. The result of the previous day's business at the auction stood so—

	Offered.	Sold.
Buenos Ayres	1823 bales.	1658 bales.
Montevideo	178	168
Do. washed	110	44

Purchasers act with the greatest reserve, and the auction was without the least animation.

If a collection were made of all the samples of Argentine native industries that for the last ten years have been exhibited on the Bolsa what a very motley museum would not Mr. Becar boast of, and yet the collection if ludicrous would be instructive. It costs but a letter from Europe with a few pen and ink designs to flood this market with new patterns, new goods and new luxuries; yet the combined strength of the commercial community is impotent to place on the market the simplest article of home made manufacture. Strange to say, of all the articles that have been exhibited on the Bolsa, one only and that made by an Irishman has taken root, has assumed a marketable value and has shut off an import; we refer to Gambi's Yellow Grease, which now enjoys a fair local consumption. To-day was exhibited on 'Change a bottle of native made ink, and there was this peculiarity about the sample that not only is the ink home manufacture but also the bottle which contained it. There were those who smiled at Messrs. Woodgate, Goyo Soler, Rosignol and others who passed the bottle of ink from hand to hand; but the article is a necessary one: one of great consumption, and to the honour of Mr. Masoni the manufacturer, an effort is being now made to supply this market with Argentine ink. It is after all a solemn fact that for so trifling an article as ink we have to send to Europe for a supply; and it is to be hoped that merchants and others will patronise to the fullest extent this humble article of native manufacture. It is about time we begin to do something for ourselves.

There is but one opinion on the Bolsa respecting the question raised by Don Luis Martinez on the subject of payment on export dues, and that opinion is against the Government interpretation of its own decree. As there is a measure now before Congress for the reduction of 50 per cent. on the export duties, it is not of much importance whether Mr. Martinez is right or Mr. Dominguez is wrong; still, as a precedent, every one takes exception to the Minister's reading of his own decree, which was published in the papers and commented on by them as a very splendid relief measure by the Argentine Government to help commerce. The decree distinctly stated that all duties would be payable in "pagares" at three months, and yet the Minister has now decided that this privilege only extends to import duties. Mr. Dominguez has proved himself the Hampton of the River Plate.

The result of the first day's running of the first section of the Belgrano tramway was signally successful. It is to be hoped, however, that the management of this new line will be better than that of the Flores tramway, which gives rise to such continued complaints. Frequently the evening tramways on the Flores road are so crowded that there is nothing but standing room in the car, and spite of the remonstrance of the passengers, a second car is not put on; every one in Flores wishes to support the Billinghurst line, but the complaints as to delays in the streets, overcrowding of the cars, &c., show there is much room for an improvement in the administration.

The heirs or executors of Mr. Brix, deceased, are summoned to send in their claims without delay.

Mr. Pippet, the well-known horticulturist, is about to open a quinta experimental in Quilmes. This is a move in the right direction for Quilmes.

An English merchant calls our attention to the fact, that the rate of exchange of the Olbers mail in the month of June last year was, if anything, under what it closed at this year; and yet, strange to say, people then paid far less heed to the low rate of exchange than they do now, although our stock of wool was then nearly all shipped and to-day we have a million sterling on hand.

The splendor of the rising building for the Hypothecary Bank attracts attention. Day by day Calle San Martin is blocked up with the huge iron girders which are now landing from the Custom House, and many people ask whether it would not have been better for the Directors to remain where they are at a small rent than to launch out to such extravagance before they have ten millions of their stock in the market; the building, no doubt, will be an ornament to the street and the city, but it looks very like as if Buenos Ayres is unable to support all the public ornamental buildings that are now going up. The National Bank building alone is a work of great undertaking, yet it comes under the same category, and perhaps the directors would have done better to have adopted Dr. Sarsefield's proposal and live in small premises for the first ten years of their existence.

The French packet Niger sailed to-day, taking heavy mails, chiefly duplicates of letters per Olbers.

The Crisis.

The crisis in the Cognac Market is now at its height. Barran and Briet hold the market, being the sole Agents of Dupuy's famed Brandy in the Plate. The Brandy tightness is complained of by all the hotel keepers and confiteros in town, and until a few more clerks are put on at the Custom-house, a returning ease in the Brandy Market cannot be looked for.

Bristol's sarsaparilla

Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one article, but is compounded of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their source in the blood and humors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem most. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsaparilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dugerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at he places where the various roots, druge, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uninformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint ayou in the cure of.

Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scald Head.
Syphilis, or Veneral Disease.
Nervous and General Debility,
Old Sores, Ulcers, Tumors,
Abscesses, Boils, Eruptions
Scrofula or King's Evil,
Female Derangements,
White Swellings,
Fever and Ague,
Chills and Fever, & Dumb Ague.

As a means of building up the consitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other Minerals, our Sarsaparilla will be found most excellent, and can be administered with safety to the weakest patients. As a purifier of the blood and humors, in the Spring and early Summer, it will the found unfailing. It can be taken freely at seasons, rainy or dry. For some of the above diseases, the use of the Sarsaparilla must be continued a considerable time, especially for those that are hereditary or constitutional in their nature—such as Scrofula: but a faithful compliance with the directions will always relieve and mitigate, and in a great majority of cases will effect a complete cure. It will also be found, in all of the above diseases, that a cure will be greatly hasted by using our Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in moderate does, in connection with the Sarsaparilla; they carry off large quantities of morbific or diseased matter set free in the system by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way facilitate the return to renal fnuctional operations

New Patent R.R. Grease

YELLOW GREASE

Manufactured and Patented by RICHARD GAMBLE.

Suitable only for this Climate and Not for Europe.

It is manufactured to suit Summer, Winter and Spring, and is only used for Railways, Tramways and Carts, Bullock Waggons, &c.

It consists of Nine different fluid oils and solidified by a chemical process. It will resist the hottest sun, and will not get into a liquid or fluid state. It is only when the action of the axles commences it becomes a rich creamy fluid, and when the action stops its again solidifies.

It is of a suitable consistency, of good lasting power, attended with but little increase of temperature even at the highest speeds, and leaves but the smallest residue in the axle boxes. A grease which is too firm will remain comparatively solid in the box, and allow the axle to become hot, whilst on the other hand one that is too thin becomes exhausted by a few miles running.

This Grease is of more importance than at first sight appears; for while the grease account a railway companies forms no inconsiderable itet of expenditure, the waste of motive power and wear and tear of plant entailed by the use of unsuitable grease is enormous.

The merits of the Grease, in its general utility as a

and also for its CHEAPNESS,

are shown, when compared with other kinds hitherto used, that are entirely useless for any purpose but that of lubrication.

It is therefore much less liable to be pilfered and misapplied than tallow, lard, neatsfoot oil, potro oil, rape oil or gallipole oil.

These oils always command a ready market if pilfered, a circumstance which induced the principal railway companies in England to adopt Yellow Grease for their protection and manufacture to suit European climate.
